Property Description

Welcome to Frederick Street, a stunning House located in the heart of Kings Cross, London. This exceptional property combines modern luxury with historical charm. A Grade 2 listed building constructed in the 1850's by the renowned builder, Thomas Cubitt, triple great grandfather of Queen Camilla.

Spanning an impressive 2,539 square feet, this spacious House features four well-appointed bedrooms and four stylish bathrooms, including two luxurious ensembles. Each bedroom offers ample space and natural light, creating a serene retreat in the bustling city.

Grand and generous rooms, with traditional referencing and detailing, gives way to a modern, fresh interpretation of London townhouse.

The House is designed for both comfort and functionality, making it perfect for families or those who love to entertain. The open-plan living area seamlessly integrates the kitchen and dining spaces, providing a warm and inviting atmosphere for gatherings.

Additional features of this remarkable property include detailed charts, diagrams, and plans that showcase the layout and design, allowing potential buyers to envision their future in this exquisite home.

Offered at a price guide of £2,150,000, this apartment is a rare find in one of London's most sought-after neighbourhoods. Don't miss the opportunity to own a piece of history while enjoying modern conveniences. Schedule a viewing today and experience the unique charm of Frederick Street.
