Property Description

An exceptional five-bedroom Grade II listed semi-detached Victorian stucco house, measuring some 3,000 sq ft, set over just four floors, with a sizable front garden, a striking hooded iron balcony and beautiful rear garden, perfect for dining in the summer. This meticulously designed house benefits from air-conditioning on the upper two floors, under-floor heating and enjoys a host of interesting architectural features. Once you step inside, you will be intrigued to see what innovation you will find next. From a heated-glass conservatory to a double-height hallway and a floating-glass study this property delivers on all levels.

The accommodation includes a formal double reception, a beautifully equipped kitchen, a dining room, a conservatory, four generous double bedrooms, one with a study, two luxurious bathrooms, a further guest bedroom with en-suite, a guest cloakroom, and an abundance of fitted storage as well as a storage room.

The house is superbly positioned for the green spaces and the amenities of Holland Park, Notting Hill and Kensington, including renowned local restaurants, greengrocers, butchers and delicatessens.
